THE BEST WAY TO RAPIER AND THE BATTLESHIP BUILDING

Rapier, 179 Harrow Road, London W2 6NB

We love our new building, but it's a bit tucked away. So you'll definitely need these directions. Believe us, if you just follow your nose or use Google Maps, you will get lost.

By Tube, Train and Foot

We're a five minute walk from PADDINGTON STATION if you follow the directions below.

Take the Hammersmith & City, Circle, District or Bakerloo line, or mainline rail services to Paddington.

If you're coming by mainline rail or the Bakerloo or District line, head for the Circle and Hammersmith & City line entrance. There's a yellow and pink sticker on the station floor which leads you to this.

At the Circle and Hammersmith & City line entrance, follow the temporary walkway signposted 'Harrow Road'. This brings you onto the Grand Union Canal. Turn left and walk along the canal until you reach the Nissan Design Centre. Walk down the sloping path around this building and you'll see the Battleship Building on your right.

By Car

Follow Harrow Road (A404) until you reach the Harrow Road roundabout – stay on the inside lane and take the exit at the blue 'Access to Paddington Central' sign and drive down the ramp. At the bottom, take a sharp left into The Battleship Building car park.

If you're coming via the Westway (A40), follow the signs to the West End, then Paddington, then Ring Road South to bring you to Harrow Road and the Harrow Road roundabout.

By Cab

Tell the cabbie it's the old Monsoon Building, and the entrance is off the Harrow Road roundabout.
